HATS FOR YOUNG GIRLS

Many flounced hats are being worn by young girls, the materials being lace or pleated chiffon over lace. The forms these hats take are extremely diversified, some of them being tall, inverted pot shapes, with seven or eight inch lace flounces draped from the top of the high crown and falling an inch or more below the brim all around. Festoons of baby rosebuds not larger in diameter than half an inch are used around the tops of the crowns of such lace hats; or, a single tinted gardenia with foliage is placed at the left side of the front.—HARPER'S BAZAR.

Clarksburg, W. Va., Aug. 28, 1910. Whereas, the Great and Supreme Ruler of the Universe has in His infinite wisdom removed from us one of our worthy and esteemed brothers, Robert Henry Sphar, And, Whereas, the long and intimate relation with him in the faithful discharge of his duties in this order make it eminently fitting that we record our appreciation of him, therefore, be it
